ASTRÆA AT THE CAPITOL.

TO TOTALES IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. 1862. When first I saw our banner wave I heard beneath its marble wall. The clanking fetters of the slave !

In the foul market-place I stood, And saw the Christian mother sold; And childhood with its locks of gold, Blue-oyed and fair with Saxon blood:

I shut my eyes, I held my breath. And smothering down the weath and

That set my Northern blood affame, Stood silent-where to speak was death,

Beside me gluomed the prison-sell

Where wasted one in slow decline

For uttering simple words of mine, And loving freedom all too well. The flag that floated from the dome Flapped menuos in the morning air; I stood, a perilled stranger, where

The human broker made his home.

For crime was virtue : Gown and Sword And Law their three-fold sanction gave, And to the quarry of the slave Went hawking with our symbol bird.

On the oppressor's side was power ; And yet I knew that every wrong, However old, however strong, But waited God's avenging hour.

I know that truth would crush the lie, Somebow, sometime, the end would be

Yet scarcely dered I hope to see

The triumph with my mortal eye. But now I see it! In the sun A free flag floats from yonder dome, And at the nation's hearth and home and at Mattoling, in outer of brakes! The message of deliverance comes, But, heralded by roll of drums, On waves of battle troubled air !-!Midal sounds that madden and appall,

The justice long delayed is done:

The song that Bethlenem's shepherds knew!---The burp of David melting through I'de demon agenies of Baul, I cavil not with Him : the voice That freedom's blessed Gospel tells Is sweet to me as silver belle, Rejoicing !- yea, I will rejoice ! Rejnice in hope! The day and night Are one with God, and one with them Who see by faith the cloudy hem Oh Judgement fringed with Mercy's light!

The financial statement made by Mr Dawes in the house of . Representatives on Tuesday, was one of utmost importance. The immediate purpose of Mr. Dawes was to reply to Mr. Voorhees who had declared that the government was rushing to financial rain, Mr. at the rate of three or four millions nge rate, as he states it, is probably less than most people suppose.

Mr. Dawes took into his account the expenditures of the government from week. The expenditures for the war officer; Lients, W. P. Buckner and R. Thus the average of surer Miner. expenses for military and naval purposes together was almost precisely one million per day. The public debt, including the $70,000,000 left behind by Mr. Buchanan, had last week reached more favorable than the most sanguine W. W. Maclay, M. Niles, J. C. Perram have supposed possible. Mr. Dawes, C. M. McGregor, H. C. Taylor, F. Wildes, however, vouches for his data as trustworthy; and although his statement is

In connection with these statements Mr. Colfax exposed very happily, as it seems to us, one of the causes of the er.
